Aaron – there is a 1:30PM briefing today with the RA on Potter. They wanted to keep the group small for this one. The briefing sheet was sent up already. I've attached it here.

I will forward the invite to Josh (I assume he is acting for Lynde today).

Aaron, thanks for your other e-mail. Here's what I got from Suzanne Smith. Can you follow up with the program to find out if there is a briefing today?

Good morning Josh,

It's been awhile – hope telework is serving you well.

David Garcia mentioned in senior staff this morning that there is a briefing on Potter Co SO2. I think it is at 1pm. You probably already know, but just making sure....
